

2ND ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM: DRINK AND THE LIFE CYCLE

23rd September 2011, IAS Seminar Room, Millburn House, University of Warwick

10.00-10.30 Registration

10.30-12.30 Panel 1

- Shaun Mudd (Exeter), “Age and Alcohol in Ancient Rome.”
- Ruth Cherrington (Club Historians), “Learning to Stand Your Round and Become a Man: Intergenerational Drinking Behaviour in Working Men’s Clubs.”
- Chris Hackley (Royal Holloway), “Young People, Extreme Drinking and the Spectacle of Alcohol Marketing and Consumption.”

12.30-1.30 Lunch

1.30-3.30 Panel 2

- Matthew Jackson (Warwick), “The Life Cycle in Print: Old Age Drinkers in Early Modern Ballads.”
- Nicolas Pillai (Warwick), “A dry Martini you always shake to waltz time”: Drinking with Nick and Nora in MGM’s Thin Man Films.”
- Doreen Joy Barber (SOAS), “Pints, Pensioners and Pub Quizzes: Age and Expectations in the Contemporary London Pub.”

3.30-4.00 Tea/Coffee

4.00-5.30 Plenary: Gill Valentine (Leeds), “Generational Patterns of Alcohol Consumption: Continuity and Change.”

5.30-7.00 Drinks Reception